

Electronics Manufacturing Facility Philips Electronics

CLIENT

Philips Electronics

Philips is a Dutch technology company with primary divisions focused in the areas of electronics, healthcare and lighting. It is one of the largest electronics companies in the world and operates facilities in more than 60 countries.

LOCATION

Ciudad Juarez, Mexico

ECM provided project management services for Philips' sophisticated computer monitor factory in Juarez, Mexico. The 200,000 SF industrial facility includes a world-class manufacturing floor as well as over 24,000 SF of office space, meeting facilities and other amenities.

ROLE

Construction Management

ECM contributed with a wide range of construction management services including environmental assessments, GC bid review, construction scheduling, design and specifications review, construction inspection, systems testing and final building acceptance.

COST/SIZE

200,000 SF

Philips Electronics is another example of the impressive assortment of facilities ECM has completed across Mexico for global clients.